November 2011

As part of the continued effort to raise money for the Central Notts District Explorers expedition to Tanzania, a special charity screening of the Lion King 3D will be held at Broadway Cinema, Nottingham with all profits going to the fund.

This will be an afternoon screening on Saturday 3 December 2011. Tickets are available online from Broadway, or in person from the cinema, priced at £3.50 for all, plus booking fee. It is expected to sell out early as it is a public event, so book early !

The money being raised is to fund an expedition to Tanzania by Central Notts Explorers in February 2012. During the trip they will be working along side Scouts from Tanzania and installing two rain water harvesters at St. Phillip's clinic in the town of Tabora.

Scouts launch 'Scout Community Week'

The Scouting Association has launched this new initiative which will run 14 - 20 May 2012. It effectively replaces the old 'Bob a Job Week' which some of the older members will remember, although services will be delivered on a voluntary basis. Head of Notts. Scouts Matt Rooney appeared on BBC TV and gave details of the proposed scheme -Read more (<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-15350640>) . June 2011

Thanks to Jo and Ally for organising the family picnic on Sunday 26 June at Pepperots. Everyone enjoyed the afternoon including the hot weather and the strawberries and cream were heavenly! B-R-A-V-O !

April 2011

3W has received a generous contribution from Gedling Borough Council towards the purchase and installation of a bike rack at Pepperpots. We are particularly grateful to Councillor Mel Shepherd and Councillor Richard Nicholson for sponsoring us for this award. This will avoid the need for bikes to be taken into the Ellis Building and it will encourage our older Scouts and Explorers to use their bikes to get to and from Pepperpots.....
